Paws hitting the pavement Feb. 19 for Pets of Pima Parade

Join Pima Animal Care Center, Friends of PACC, and a variety of four-legged friends for a one-of-a-kind celebration of Pima County's pets Feb. 19 along Historic Fourth Avenue. In addition to hundreds of animals, the Tucson Subaru Pets of Pima Parade will feature bands, floats, entertainers, costumed characters, classic vehicles, and more. District 3 Supervisor Sharon Bronson will serve as the Parade's Grand Marshal. Board Chair Adelita Grijalva will greet parade-goers from the shelter's new PACCMobile, which will enable PACC to hit the road distributing vaccines, pet supplies and facilitating adoptions.

Success with senior health

We have no shortage of seniors in our community. In order to better target their health needs, the Health Department partnered with AARP on a successful tele-town hall on Jan. 31. About 4,400 people participated in the call with Health Department Director Dr. Terry Cullen and other staff. On Feb. 8, PCHD partnered with Banner Health and the Pima Council on Aging on another virtual town hall on senior health.
