

We only use cookies that are necessary for this site to function to provide you with the best experience. The controller of this site may choose to place supplementary cookies to support additional functionality such as support analytics, and has an obligation to disclose these cookies. Learn more in our Cookie Statement.

Jan. 24 PCFYI: An imPACtful campaign, learning to earn and more

Pima County, Arizona sent this bulletin at 01/24/2025 09:53 AM MST

Having trouble viewing this email? View it as a Web page.

Friday, Jan. 24, 2024 — Vol. 10, No. 2

PACC en Español Campaign wraps up first year with strong results

Pima Animal Care Center's year-long outreach to the Spanish-speaking community is paying dividends, according to reports chronicling the first year of activity. The PACC en Español campaign, a partnership among the shelter, its non-profit partner Friends of PACC, and the County Communications Office, has already helped thousands of pets and their families.

READ MORE

ODI's Learn to Earn classes help digital newcomers navigate the computer world

The Pima County Office of Digital Inclusion recently launched a new class intended to provide individuals with the tools they need to use a computer and navigate the internet safely. The classes are available in both English and Spanish and offer students the chance to earn a brand new laptop.

READ MORE

Shining a light on Real Property Services

From widening roads to acquiring open-space lands, Real Property Services is closely involved with some of Pima County's most important projects. The work they do may not sound glamorous, but the County couldn't operate as efficiently as it does without the work of one of its most unsung departments.

READ MORE

Robles Ranch opens THE HUB for resources, community

At first glance, the white building that sits beside the highway on the property looks quiet and innocuous. But the work that's happening inside is expected to have a lasting and positive impact in Three Points. Officially known as THE HUB, it houses the Community Food Bank and My Friend's Closet thrift store, and will be open soon.

READ MORE

Winter speaker series explores our connection to the desert

If you're looking for new insights into desert life, there's no better place to begin than Pima County Conservation Lands & Resources' Winter Speaker Series, which runs through March. The theme of this year's series is "Desert Dwellers: Building Ecological Literacy Through Storytelling."

READ MORE

Six submissions chosen as 2024 Limited-Edition Library Cards

Sometimes we experience seasons that aren't designated by the calendar; maybe they are more enduring passages of time that leave marks on us in other ways. Celebrate those seasons with the Pima County's limited-edition library cards!

READ MORE

Library shares list of most anticipated books for 2025

A new year means new books at the Pima County Public Library! The library's Lit Hub team is sharing its most anticipated books coming out in 2025, starting with the month of January. Check to see what new works have made the list and where they'll be available.

READ MORE

Next issue: Friday, Feb. 14, 2025

Stay Connected with Pima County

Find what you're looking for

County Government • County Departments • County Services • Most-Common Requests

SUBSCRIBER SERVICES:
Manage Subscriptions | Unsubscribe All | Help

Subscribe to updates from Pima County, Arizona

Email Address e.g. name@example.com

Share Bulletin

Powered by

Privacy Policy | Cookie Statement | Help